Let's Begin by Saying Goodbye

Should We Laugh,
Should We Cry,
Should We Express Anger
In Saying Goodbye.

Can We Look Back,
Can We Move Forward,
Can We Find Meaning in Our Goodbye.

As We Touch
While We Listen,
With Our Hearts
And Our Minds.

That We Add Joy,
And Spread Life
To Those Who Suffer.

We Carry Hope
In the Palms of Our Hands.

Let's Not Lose Sight
Of Our Struggles;
Let's Not Lose Sight
Of Our Goals.

For Today,
We Conquer
We Master
We Acknowledge —

That We Extend Love
With Each Goodbye.

So Let's Say Goodbye,
Let's Begin Again,
Let's Never Forget
Who We Are
And Where We've Been.

Fluting 1981

Consider yourself part of the nursing school.

Is fluting on our skill's check list?

We made it ...

Who says four hands are better than two?

If you weren't in nursing school, where would you be?

Sorry girls, this yearbook is censored!

Porr Jean, who will assess her needs?

Ode to a Frazzled RN Student

One cold and blustery, Monday morn
as St. Peter warmed his toes,
A knock on the pearly gates was heard and a wailing voice arose.

I've had enough, now let me in,
I've paid my dues, you see.
I cannot stand another day of put-downs, overwork and infiltrated IV's.

St. Peter opened the gate in haste and right before his eyes stood a frazzled, hopeless, RN student nurse searching for someone good and wise.

As St. Peter led her to the knee of God
he heard her muttered plea, for a safe and calming place to rest
to regain her sanity.

Then God in great wisdom asked
"What brings you to this scene?"
The nurse replied, "On my way to class I was hit at Lombard and Greene."

I planned my life and plotted a course to heal and care for the sick.
But now I find confusion reigns,
And from many roles I must pick.

Some see me as a lowly maid safe to order, browbeat and berate.
I see myself as an active force independent, educated and up-to-date.

In the hospital setting as the great cogs turn,
and the sick are healed, I see needs met for directors, chiefs and doc's til there's nothing left for me.

Now I wouldn't complain if I could feel that my human needs were met.
But Saturday evenings to Sunday days leaves my mental state upset.

I can't remember left from right
nor yet the time of day.
But somehow I must pass meds, restart IV's and still smile along the way.

The games are played; the deck is stacked.
I have no way to win.
The doc's, the chiefs, and the float pool nurse have locked me in a pen.

I'm burning out, I have no hope
My life's become deranged.
The more I give, the less I get the world I cannot change.

"Don't give up, my friend," the workers cry,
if you band together you'll win.
A voice alone may not be heard but together we'll raise a "din."

But which way is best, we cannot decide.
Do we join an outside force?
Or do we try with our own small group
our employers to coerce?

Can the meatcutters really speak for us or understand our way?
If not, do we bind our future course to that of MNA?

The nurse collapsed at the feet of God exhausted from her speech.
As silence echoed round heaven's space
a hand to her God reached.

Do not fear my child, your voice is heard there is hope for nurses still.
You must all join hands, organize yourselves,
and climb that mighty hill.

Together you stand — divided you fall
for power you must hold,
There is good in all who fight for right and victory to the bold.

Now go back to earth, your job's not yet done —
the future is in your hands.
You must bear this message to the loyal ranks from God, . . . alias Rosetta Sands.

Baltimore isn't really for the birds — is it ??

Puppy Love

Could we move the campus closer to Harbor-place, PLEASE!!

Baltimore City at its best.

Who said famous people never visit Baltimore?

Home to the ghetto.

Lexington's Leading Lady

Parked Illegally!!

NO!! You put your arms around the chest not the head.

Love Prevails

Love of Men.

Love of Food.

Love of Friends.

"But the sign says NO Standing."

"Does this bus go to Greiffs Exxon?"

"Do you take credit cards???"

Clinical

Yeah! I didn't bend the needle!

Building charts.

No client in there!

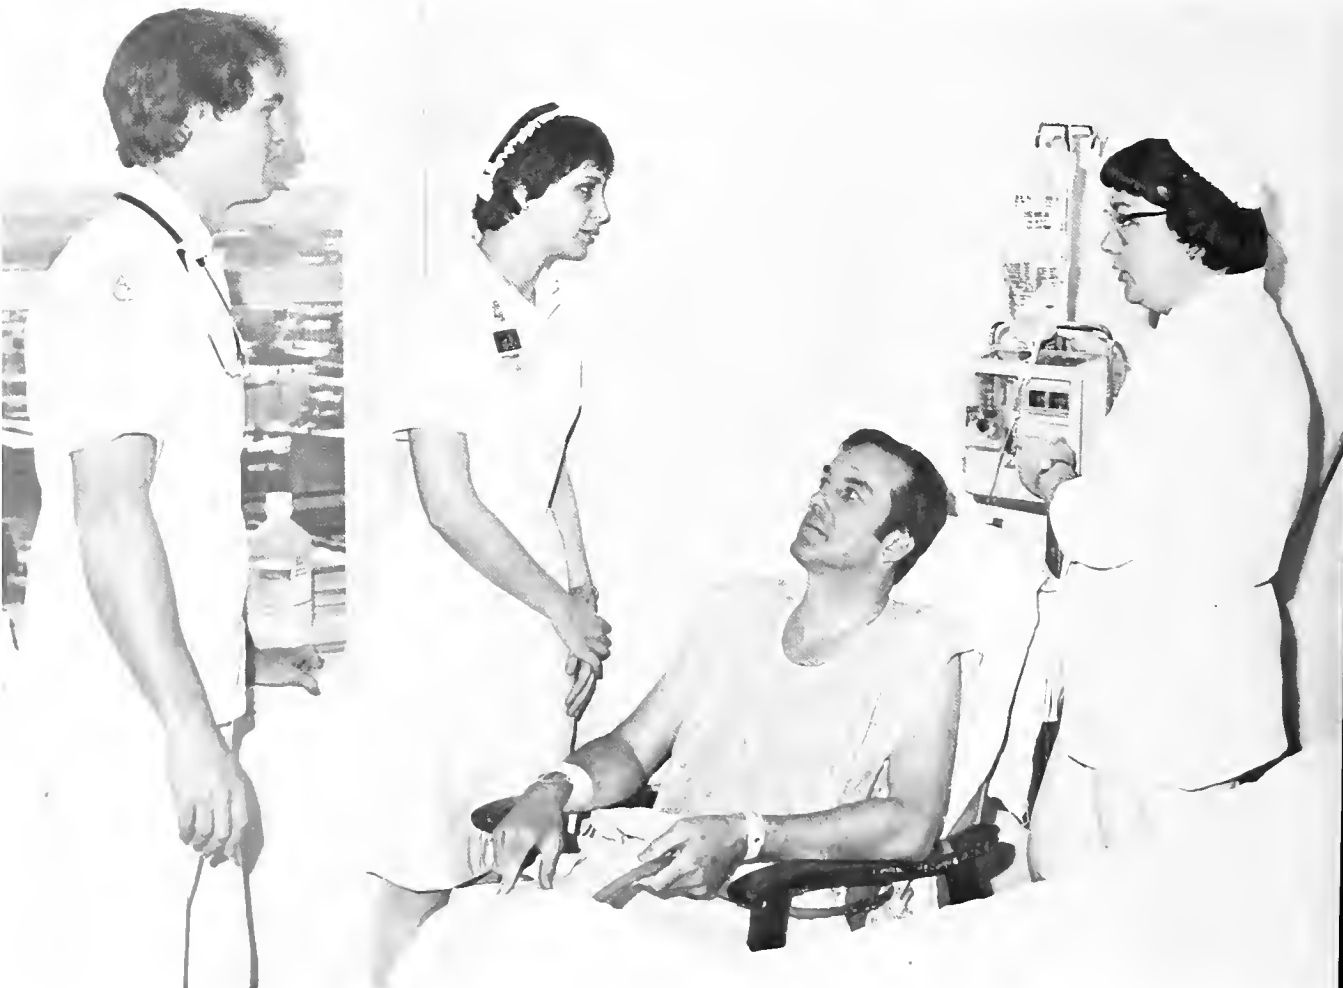

Are we coming or going???

Ahh! There's the arm!

I shouldn't laugh, they have to eat this stuff!!

"Do these guys know what they are doing??"

It would be a whole lot easier if the cuff would work!

I'm sure he gets a laxative every 2 hours — it's written right here.

I'm not sure what it's for, but it types a heck of a letter!

I told you not to call me here — I'm on duty!!

This is a machine — not a client!

"I wanna go to bed ladies."

Did you see that fly floating around in there?

You have to start young to teach a man to work in the kitchen!!

I sure as heck wouldn't eat that slop!!!

Did you say you wanted to watch the Flintstones?

Do you know what any of this is for??

This is a foot, when we've found the rest of the patient we'll know what to do with it.

Keep reaching for those "growth."

Where do all the numbers go?

I knew I should have SOAPed this earlier!

I always wanted to be a waitress.

"No, it's not under there."

Smile! You're in Concepts III-B!

Don't we look happy together? Well, we are!!

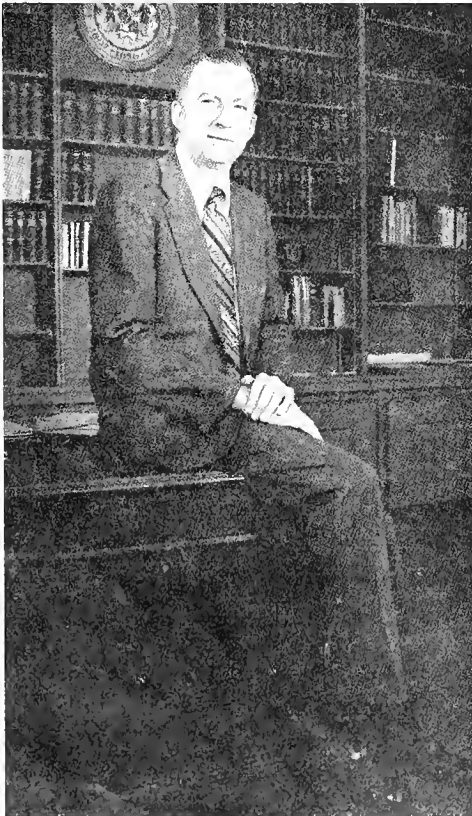

Talk about ring around the collar!!!

DOCTORS' HOSPITAL OF PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY, MARYLAND

We invite you to join us to talk about the superb nursing opportunity at Doctors' Hospital at Prince George's County.

...a very wise decision...!

We are a 250 bed acute care facility located 25 minutes from our Nation's Capital - the monuments, museums, Kennedy Center, Georgetown and cherry blossoms - 25 minutes from historic Annapolis and the U.S. Naval Academy. Also one hour from the beach.

We encourage students to inquire about our Financial Assistance Program for Senior Nursing Students.

Graduate Nurse Internships:

The Graduate Nurse Internship is a four-month program designed to aid the new graduate in making the transition from student to professional nurse while providing an opportunity for application of her/his skill and knowledge through a series of supervised clinical experiences. A medical/surgical, ICU, or CCU internship may be selected by the graduate. Programs begin in June, September, and January of each year. Upon completion, the new nurse will have acquired organizational and time management skills and will utilize the nursing process in the formulation of patient care plans and the execution of patient-centered care. Following successful completion of the program, the newly licensed R.N. will be obligated to one year of full-time employment at the hospital.

VITAL

Bonnie Hathaway began working at Washington Adventist Hospital as part of her training at Columbia Union College. Since graduating in 1979, she has continued to work in the Intensive Care Unit.

Bonnie Hathaway's patients are critical... they depend on her to keep them alive. Any small variance in a patient's life support system could spell disaster without Bonnie's careful, expert attention. Bonnie is a nurse in the Intensive Care unit of Washington Adventist Hospital in Takoma Park, Maryland, and she knows her job counts... not just to her, but to the many patients whose lives she touches.

It takes special people to give special care. And our staff is made up of very special people... from Housekeeping Services to Heart Specialists, each staff member works to provide the exceptional kind of care that Washington Adventist Hospital has built its reputation on for nearly 75 years.

Health care from people who care...
Washington Adventist Hospital.
